

IoT Specialist

Position Description

We are currently recruiting for an IoT Specialist who will work with multiple clients in a variety of industries on designing and implementing IoT solutions. This position is for experienced hires, located in Calgary. You will be responsible for designing and implementing data collection solutions.

Your duties and responsibilities

- Designing, estimating, coding and testing complex solutions
- Preparing detailed specifications for programs
- Solving problems
- Interacting with clients from all levels
- Participating in multiple assignments at the same time
- Documentation

Qualifications

- At least 1 year experience with IoT design and implementation
- Development experience with MS Azure IoT or similar
- Demonstrated experience in analysis, design and maintenance or development of application systems using the technologies described
- Excellent interpersonal skills
- Excellent problem solving and decision-making skills
- Excellent oral, written and communication skills
- Demonstrated ability to work well under pressure with multiple priorities
- Demonstrated ability to work well in a team or solo environment with limited supervision